Seattle Theatre Group Presents Virtual Student Matinees!

(Seattle, WA) – STG is excited to announce a series of virtual student matinees! STG presents and produces several matinees for school and community groups each year. These free and specially-priced programs make the performing arts accessible to student groups and include workshops and study materials to expand student learning. Special thanks to our Education & Community Engagement partner Starbucks for their continued support.

This year's series includes dance, music, sensory-friendly experiences and more! The current lineup is below:

Five Days with Step Afrika!

Step Afrika! is the world's first professional company dedicated to the tradition of stepping—a polyrhythmic, percussive dance form that uses the body as an instrument. Based on Step Afrika!'s award-winning arts education programs and more than twenty-five years of performing and teaching students, the Company has created Five Days with Step Afrika! to support the academic environment as well as the challenges of virtual learning.

20th Anniversary of More Music @ The Moore

Virtually celebrate the impact this inspiring production has made for over two decades, mixing musical styles from around the city and the globe. Hear stories and watch highlights of local up-and-coming artists performing alongside world-renowned mentors on the historic Moore Theatre stage.

Black Violin – Impossible Tour Virtual Matinee

Classically trained string players Wil B. (viola) and Kev Marcus (violin) use their unique blend of classical and hip-hop music, often described as “classical boom,” to overcome stereotypes and encourage people of all ages, races, and economic backgrounds to join together to break down cultural barriers.

Virtual student matinees will also include Dan & Claudia Zanes' Sensory-Friendly Performance, and a celebration of STG's signature dance program, DANCE This.
